Clete Vos Appointed Fire Chief

Jump In Theater License Fee Protested By Swanson

Clete Vos, a member of the Antioch fire department for the past nineteen years, a past president, and assistant chief for the past four years, was appointed chief of the department at a meeting of the village board Tuesday evening.

The appointment was made on the recommendation of the members of the department and will run for a period of one year, the appointment running concurrently with the fiscal year of the village.

Chief Vos when contacted today said that no immediate changes in the operation of the department were contemplated, and that any changes would be the result of a study of the department's operation. He also urged extreme care in the use of oil lights which are in use during the dimout, and said that adequate fire protection will be supplied by the department for all public meetings and social functions which will be held while the electric curtailment is in effect.

Swanson Protests High Fee
F. B. Swanson, manager of the Antioch Theatre, was present at the meeting to protest the raising of the theatre license fee from $80 yearly to $200.

He cited license fees throughout the region as examples of charges which were made, and said that Antioch's fees were higher than those in effect in Zion, Waukegan, Libertyville, or any other cities in the region and asked that the fee be reduced. No action was taken by the board in this matter and since the ordinance which raised the fee is now in effect and a revision of the ordinance would be necessary to change the fee, it considered unlikely that any change will be made.

Other business conducted at the board meeting included payment of all outstanding bills and a motion to secure the services of E. F. Loren, Arlington Heights C. P. A., to audit the village books.

Reutlinger, American Legion Home at Waukegan, Ill., has been advised that honorably discharged veterans of the merchant marine and armed forces up to the age of 24 will be permitted to apply for admission to the United States Merchant Marine Academy at Kings Point, New York.

In addition to the usual 21 year maximum age being waived, veterans will be allowed a five point advantage in the competitive entrance examination for the academy's four year course.

Veterans under the age limit may send inquiries regarding appointment as Cadet-Midshipment to the Supervisor, U. S. Merchant Marine Cadet Corps, Washington 25, D. C.

Walter Hills Meets War Bride Niece For First Time This Week

Following the telephone call Mr. and Mrs. LaBelle drove to Antioch and are spending the week with Mr. and Mrs. Hills.

Horan Reports Tax Collection for 1945 Good

That tax payments are being received at a rate comparable with other years was revealed this week by John L. Horan, town tax collector.

More than 10,000 individual tax statements were mailed out by Horan last week, with more than one third of them going to Chicago people who own property in the township.

Taxes may be paid to the town collectors throughout the county until June 1, after which time a penalty will be charged and the taxes must be paid to the County treasurer.

State Director of Health Wars on Rats, Disease

Warning Issued That Rats Are On Increase In State

Due to the steady increase in the number of rats in Illinois and the difficulties some cities are experiencing in destroying rats, Dr. Roland R. Cross, Director of the Illinois Department of Public Health, issued a general warning this week to increase all efforts to exterminate the rodent from our State.

"Not only does the rat cause an exorbitant economic loss, estimated at $2,500,000,000 annually," Dr. Cross said, "but the rat carries with him a potential source of danger from disease—typhus fever, plague, jaundice and rat-bite fever being the most prevalent, with typhus the most common in the United States. Although only a few scattered cases of typhus have been reported in Illinois in the last few years, the increase in the number of rats during the war makes the situation potent with danger."

"Besides these four main rat-borne diseases scientists have proven that the rat can transmit other diseases to man, such as diarrhea, dysentery, food poisoning, trichinosis, typhoid fever, tularemia, rabies, tape-worm and possibly sleeping sickness."

Dr. Cross recommended a three-fold plan of rat control: "Starve them out, Build them out, and Kill them off." To starve them out, special emphasis is placed on correct garbage disposal, burning it immediately or using tight metal containers in cities with garbage collection, and otherwise keeping food away from places where rats could obtain it.

To build them out, it is possible to rat-proof all buildings. Primarily it is a matter of closing all openings or screening those which cannot be closed such as basement windows and drain pipes, (using sewer traps, and using concrete, brick or metal at the base of the building).

To kill them off, there are many types of rat poisons and rat traps on the market, most of which are effective provided directions are accurately followed. Since most of the rat poisons are also poisonous to children and pets, Dr. Cross urged the utmost precaution in their use.

Billie Mae Runyard Is Contributor To College Magazine

Billie Mae Runyard, former honor student at Antioch High school, now attending Whitewater State Teacher's college, Whitewater, Wis., has been a regular contributor to the "Royal Purple" college paper there. Below is reproduced a poem written by Billie and sent in by Mrs. Alice W. Dixon, a member of the faculty there.

My Home Town (Antioch, Ill.)

Mundane metropolis, you struggle like them all!
You're like the night, you make men free.

You're a symphony of light in the drear world of darkness.

You are as others dare not dream. You laugh, sorrow, team, fly and yet grovel.

You glitter while you groan, sparkle while you slander.

Praise while you pollute, shamble while you sneer.

Emulate while you exclude, harness while you hearken.

And you dream while you doubt. . . you are as no ordinary hamlet.

Oh, yes, you have the humdrum of honest, every-day living.

The darkness of ill intent, the hereditude of hope.

But you command, you are not commanded.

You order thousands; you are as destiny.

You are impassive to the fate you prepare.

You care not if fate be fair.

Yet, you are a vision . . . you are a hope.

So, live on! Guide yourself! Be proud!

But still—

Be thou as great tomorrow as today.

Dairymen to Hear W. E. Petersen on "Milk Production"

University of Minn. Expert Will Speak at Waukegan Thurs., May 9

Hundreds of dairymen in Lake, McHenry and Cook counties are expected to hear Dr. W. E. Petersen, world authority on dairy science, when he appears at the Waukegan Township High school auditorium at 8:30 p. m. Thursday, May 16.

Dr. Petersen, who is on the staff of the University of Minnesota, will discuss "The Science of Milk Production."

His talk will be illustrated by a motion picture that vividly shows the interest compelling experiments he has conducted in gaining new knowledge of the function of the cow's udder.

Because dairymen of this milk shed are interested in more milk production, better milking methods and control of mastitis, Dr. Petersen's experiments are expected to gain unusual interest.

The full color movie, "Money Making Milking," also will be shown. In this picture, the inside workings of the modern milking machine are explained.

Dr. Petersen's appearance in Waukegan is under the auspices of the Lake County Farm bureau, Kiwanis club of Waukegan, and Babson Bros. Co. of Chicago.

An invitation to all dairymen, their families, and employees has been issued by the sponsors. More than 1,200 dairymen attended a meeting at Freeport recently at which Dr. Petersen gave valuable information on how the cow's udder operates to let down or hold up milk.

Herman Rosing Is Improving Following Operation at Mayo's

Herman Rosing is reported to be steadily improving this week following his release Saturday from St. Mary's hospital, Rochester, Minn., where he underwent a major operation on April 14th.

The spinal operation was completely successful and Herman and Mrs. Rosing, who accompanied him, are expected home sometime this week.

Electric Curtailment Continues; May Bring Total Blackout Soon

Local Industry Works Three Shifts Weekly; Closed Wed. Evening

Hardware dealers in and around Antioch report a complete sell-out of every kind of lighting device during the past few days. Antioch taverns were lighted by candles and lamps of various sorts during the weekend and Service station operators were busy installing gasoline engines and other devices on gasoline pumps in order to avoid being closed Sundays and mornings.

Most organizations and other groups with meetings and other entertainments scheduled have decided to go ahead with original plans in the hope that the electric shortage will be over or that light can be supplied by some other means. Investigation by several groups into the status of fire insurance in places using oil or gas for illumination have revealed that policy holders are protected, if adequate precautions are used in handling the lamps or other lighting equipment.

Local industries have all fully complied with the restrictions governing the use of power and workers in most of them will be on the job during the first three days of each week only, until the shortage is over.

Most Antioch business houses have complied 100% with the regulation which specifies that electric power is to be used only between the hours of 2 p. m. to 6 p. m. daily except Sunday. However, a few seem to think that the order does not apply to their particular establishment, or do not care whether it does or not. It is expected that these few will feel the pressure of "crack-downs" before the emergency is over. Humor has it that a good many Waukegan business men have had their power supply completely cut off because of misuse under the Illinois Commerce commission ruling.

Prescription counters in drug stores, grocery and food stores, dairies, offices of doctors, transportation offices, banks and others places which are required by law to remain open during certain hours, are all allowed to use a minimum amount of power to carry on business, as they are classed as essential to the public health and safety, and it was to conserve power for these uses that the order was issued. Any other establishments which are consuming power at hours other than those specified are "chiseling" and may, if detected, face a complete shut-off of power supply.

Soo Line To Cut Service
In compliance with a general order issued by the office of Defense Transportation the Soo Line railroad will cut passenger train service in the northern zone on Friday, May 10, and will make a similar cut in service between Antioch and Chicago on the 15th of the month. The order was issued in order to lessen the use of coal, according to A. T. Erickson, general passenger agent of the road, and will affect reservations previously made by passengers, only if the reservation was made on a train which has been cancelled.

C. V. Keeney, agent for the Soo line at Antioch, said today that the restricted rail travel would not affect Antioch service, except that trains No. 1 and No. 2 will run on alternate days, instead of daily. Train No. 2 (from Minneapolis to Chicago) will operate on Monday, Wednesday and Fridays, arriving in Antioch at 7:50 as usual. Train No. 1 will arrive in Antioch at 3:20 a. m. on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday, north bound.

Railway Express Limits Shipments
Keeney also said that beginning tomorrow, Railway Express service would carry only foodstuffs for human consumption, printing paper and inks, medical, drug and hospital supplies, films, caskets, funeral supplies and flowers. Shipments of other materials cannot be made after Monday, May 13.

Mail Service Will Be Slowed
Postmaster Roy J. Kufalk said today that the cut in rail service would double time in which mail could be gotten out of Antioch, unless train No. 17 is certified to carry mail. Since trains No. 1 and 2 carry most of Antioch's mail, incoming mail will arrive in Antioch on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday only, unless No. 17 can be certified to carry mail. Outgoing mail will fare better than the incoming, in that one train will carry mail out of Antioch on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday, and two trains will carry mail on Wednesday and Friday. Kufalk added that service would not be affected until the rail cut takes effect on Monday, and (Continued on page 5)

Dimout Fails to Halt Legion Plans for Dance May 18

Plans for the Athletic association and Drum and Bugle corps dance which is scheduled to be held May 18 are going ahead as if there were no shortage of electricity, according to members of the committees. Some other means of lighting the Legion hall will be found if the ban on the use of electricity is not lifted by the date, they said.

All doubt that the dance would be held was dispelled today when members of the advertising committees placed window cards around the village, advertising the dance.

Main purpose of the event is to raise sufficient funds to carry on the work of the athletic association for the coming baseball season and to provide money for new uniforms for the Drum and bugle corps.

Illinois Veterans Draw GI Allowance For 6-Week Period

Illinois war veterans who drew GI allowance for unemployment in March were unemployed and drew readjustment allowance for a median period of six weeks, including their March payments, State Director of Labor Robert L. Gordon reported today.

"Records of 102,650 GI's who were paid readjustment allowance during March show that 41 per cent were unemployed and were paid readjustment allowance for periods of one week to four weeks each," Director Gordon said. "Approximately 50 per cent received benefits for one to six weeks of unemployment and 75 per cent of all the veterans who drew readjustment allowance in March were unemployed for from one week to 9 weeks."

Local Variations
"Variations in the median appeared in different industrial areas," Gordon continued. "Harrisburg topped the list with a median of almost 11 weeks, Woodstock area being low with a median of less than 4 weeks. Chicago's median was 6½ weeks."

Army Scout Car To Be Displayed In Waukegan Mon.

The U. S. Army Recruiting Service will display an Army Scout car at G. I. Miller Motors on Genesee Street from Monday, May 13 through Saturday, May 18.

This Army Scout car, known as the M3A1 in the Service, has been used in Africa, Europe, and the Pacific for Scouting missions and is equipped with machine guns to ward off attack on land and from the air.

It normally carries a crew of eight men and their equipment. It can travel on normal roads at a high rate of speed and also negotiate through difficult terrain as it is equipped with four wheel drive.

The Scout car has a specially designed commercial engine and the body is constructed of special armor plate for protection of the crew.

This vehicle is now on display in Rockford, Illinois, and will be brought to Waukegan by the local Recruiting Station.

Wages Make The Rates

During the war the railroads managed to meet rising costs of operation without rate increases, due to a staggering volume of traffic. Since the beginning of the war, wages alone have risen fifty per cent. Prices for materials and supplies have risen one-third. As long as volume remained at abnormally high levels these costs could be absorbed, although even then the effect of rising costs was such that the railroads realized less net operating revenue and less net income from the heavy traffic of 1945 than they did from the lighter traffic of 1942 and 1943. But now traffic is falling off.

The railroads face an emergency in their revenue position. In their recent petition for a general and immediate increase in freight rates of twenty-five per cent, they warned that the combined effect of lower volume and change in the composition of the traffic will mean a reduction of twenty-three per cent in 1946 operating revenues, as compared with 1945. In view of the adverse effect of each day's delay upon both the carriers and the national economy, and the fact that increased rates cannot be made retroactive (recent wage increases are retroactive to January 1), while shippers can be amply protected by awards of reparation, the railroads ask that the new rates be permitted to become effective at the earliest possible date, subject to subsequent action by the Interstate Commerce Commission.

The question of adequacy of rates is not a problem which is the concern of the railroads alone. The railroads involve the stability of the "national economy."

Millions of persons depend upon them for jobs. Healthy railroads mean a high level of tax revenue to national and local units of government. Efficient railroads mean keeping open the channels of commerce. The people can forget these facts only at their own peril, as the past war has so clearly demonstrated.

Cut-Backs In Progress

The utility industry planned to launch a large-scale program of plant expansion and service improvement in 1946. Those plans have been wrecked by strikes which created shortages of necessary materials. Instead of spending a contemplated $750,000,000 this year, the industry will be lucky if it can spend $300,000,000 toward more and better electric service. With prices of equipment averaging 50% above the pre-war level, the $300,000,000 expenditure will mean less expansion than was made in the depression year 1933, when $164,000,000 was spent—at depression prices.

A late report in a leading financial publication observes that a quick, item-by-item survey of delivery time now quoted by manufacturers on key equipment needed for electric utility expansion, shows how dismal the outlook is. Insulators, essential on poles to support electric wire, if ordered today would be delivered a year or so from now; transformers, in ten or twelve months; delivery of electric meters may be delayed as long as 18 months; wire, nine to twelve months. And so it goes through a long list of items.

It is pointed out that the Army has considerable surplus electrical equipment but public agencies have first preference on it, and are exercising their privilege. Unquestionably, much of it will be used in tax-exempt government electric power projects to push forward the Federal power socialization program while taxpaying private industry stands on the sidelines with its hands tied.

This is a sample of the handicap under which all industry is laboring today. And still we wonder why shortages and general confusion are increasing after nearly a year of peace.

May 18 the school band will be entered in the parade and concert competition and the girls chorus and mixed chorus at the Music Festival to be held at Whitewater on that date.

Next Sunday is Mother's Day and will be so observed in the worship services at the Community Church next Sunday at 11 o'clock, and you are very welcome. Sunday school at 10 a. m. and the Wesley Club of young people meets at 7 p. m.

Church Family Night will be held at the Community church on Friday evening, May 17, and pot luck supper will be served at 7 o'clock. An informal program will follow the supper, so please plan to be there.

Because of conflicting dates, there will be no further meeting of the W. S. C. S. during May, but watch for notice of the June meeting.

The Visitation committee of the Community Church met at the Weber home Monday evening for pot luck dinner and later went out on calls, and the group met at the Charles Hamlin home on Tuesday evening for dinner and evening calls.

The play "Wild Cat Willie has Brain Fever," produced by the grade school under the direction of Mr. Schrumm, was given to a large audience at the school gym last Friday evening and the pupils did a fine job of acting, especially Bob Bunkelman, who had the leading part, but all did splendidly and their director deserves much credit. Billy Hucker was splendid in his imitations and Carl Geng displayed his talent as an auctioneer, when he sold the contributions donated by various members of the village for the benefit of the school, so by sale of tickets and the auction, the school netted a nice sum.

Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Hooper and Mrs. Edward Langbein visited relatives at Oak Park last Friday.

Mrs. Bunkelman, Sr., from Fond du Lac, Wis., visited her son, Lester Bunkelman, and family a few days last week.

The John Larson family which has occupied the upper flat of the Earl Hucker home for some time has moved to Antioch where they have purchased a home. Miss Shirley Larson has charge of the Public Service office there.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Bausch and daughter have gone to Colorado to live. They made the trip recently with Mrs. Bausch's brother, Howard Brampton, and family, who came back to visit relatives and the two families returned to Colorado together.

Dan S. Boyer made a business trip to Seneca, Ill., last week.

The Kanka family, who spent the winter in Chicago, have opened their home here for the summer.

Mrs. Joseph Bakosky, who was in California with relatives during the winter, has returned to her home here.

KICH PORT

Puerto Rico, meaning rich port, got its name from Columbus, and is the only land under the Stars and Stripes on which the New World's accredited discoverer set foot. Landing there on November 19, 1493, he claimed it for Spain. When, in 1898, Spaniards withdrew from the port of San Juan, Spain had relinquished her last slender foothold in the Western hemisphere. First governor of the island was Ponce de Leon, who moved from Puerto Rico to Florida in his quest for the Fountain of Youth.

Howdy Folks: The human brain is a wonderful mechanism. It starts to function when we get up and never ceases until we start to write this column.

Sometimes we fool just like the newspaper man sitting at his typewriter trying to get an idea, and with nothing to get off his chest but a mustard plaster.

Of course, we could clip paragraphs from others but that would be sheer folly.

It takes some folks five years to finish a book, and then again, it takes others a life time to finish a sentence.

It only requires a sentence to tell about the wonderful quality of our cleaning service.

Any of our customers will tell you that there's no other cleaners that will give more satisfaction for the money.

(Remember we also clean rugs, Drapes, Slip Covers, Hats).

In Memoriam

In memory of our loving daughter and sister Dorothy Aronson, who passed away one year ago, May 11, 1945.

Gone are the days when you were here,
Sweet is the memory of one so dear.
We think of you in the morning
We think of you at eventide,
You have been missed and loved
By all who knew you.

We are thankful to God for the gift of a daughter and sister as you were in life. May God Bless and keep you always.

Library News

(By Marion Rigby, Librarian)

Effective May 8 and through the summer season, the Library will resume its regular schedule and will be open from 10 a. m. to 6 p. m. daily including Wednesday.

"A Garden for You," edited by Thomas C. O'Donnell from the writings of a group of distinguished authorities on gardens, was presented to the Library in memory of Mrs. James Wilton. The book contains a wealth of information on annuals, perennials and shrubbery.

"Skinny Angel," by Thelma Jones, is the story of the author's mother and her life as a school teacher's wife. Though mother grew increasingly stout with the years, she never lost the gay outlook that contrasted so well with father's literal sober mindedness. Miss Jones makes it very plain that mother needed all the humor she could muster to meet the ups and downs of father's career.

Mary Mian describes the charm of good hearty living, rich in prosperous farms and the legends of the Creuse, in "My Country-in-Law." The book has the lights and shadows of France in the years between wars, and is a delightful tribute to an adopted country.

PARENTS OF SON

Mr. and Mrs. A. Grenwald are the parents of a baby boy, born April 22, at the Swedish Covenant hospital in Chicago. Mrs. Grenwald before her marriage was Miss Grace Heep, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Heep, of Petite Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Hachmeister were called to Evansville, Indiana Friday due to the death of Mr. Hachmeister's brother.

Miss Alice Fox and Miss Elizabeth Erickson are vacationing in South Carolina.

Budd Thanks Power Users

Britton I. Budd, president of the Public Service Company of Northern Illinois, today issued the following statement:

"The Public Service Company deeply appreciates the fine spirit of cooperation shown by industry, stores, movie theaters and others in putting into effect the necessary and difficult adjustments to conform to the order curtailing uses of electricity for the conservation of coal. Only the broad public welfare and the need for prolonging essential electric service for health, safety and property protection could possibly warrant such drastic restrictions. The sympathetic response and the speed with which compliance is being accomplished is encouraging. The company will continue to do its utmost in the difficult task of administering this order.

Polyglot Town

It is estimated that more than 43 races were represented among 2,000 prewar inhabitants of Darwin, Australia. Streets were filled with fierce bushmen, white Australian traders, European adventurers, fuzzy-headed Fijians, Chinese coolies and merchants, Japanese pearl divers, and a variety of half-castes. This polyglot populace managed to build a hospital and a school, and to install a power and water system. When steamers docked the townfolk obtained fresh fruits, vegetables and tobacco. Occasionally a plane arrived and prisoners were turned out of jail to clear the field of horses and goats for the landing.

Balinese Distinctive

The Balinese have been credited with many distinctions. By reputation the women are the slimmest and the pigs the fattest in all Malaysia. Sitting dancers interpret the moods of the music with heads, hands and arms. There are talking birds, the fowl-like boos; and butterflies that do not flutter when they fly. Priests weave traditional figures with their fingers when at prayer. Trial marriages endure. Babies are not permitted to crawl. Cremations are occasions for noisy revelry. Books are made of tree leaves.

Foreign Trade

In prewar days the United States was second only to the British empire in trade with South Africa. United States imports including copper, chrome, tungsten, lead, manganese and other ores. In 1940 Americans ordered two million pounds of lobster tails, ice-packed for shipping 7,810 miles to New York City. These rock or Cape spiny lobsters are really sea crawfish, lacking the big pincers of the lobster.

Rice Culture

Rice production and rice milling are very different in the United States and Brazil. In the U. S. rice is grown in irrigated districts, but in Brazil an upland rice is grown during the rainy season. While Brazil grows only one type of rice, the U. S. has several different varieties. Neither does Brazil have huge rice mills such as in the U. S. But rather many small mills scattered about the country.

American Radio

Americans own 60 million radio receivers comprising 95 per cent of the people, individuals and families.

British Dominion

The Union of South Africa is a dominion with the British Commonwealth. It spreads over the southern end of the African continent with an area nearly one-sixth as great as that of continental United States, and has a population of 9,500,000, including 2,000,000 Europeans. Through the South African port of Capetown had come immigrants from many countries. In 1652 Jan van Riebeck, a surgeon of the Dutch East India company, established a small colony there to grow vegetables for sailors on the company's ships in oriental trade. The city was nicknamed "Tavern of the Sea."

Escorts Effective

Less than a score of the 18,760 ships escorted across the Atlantic between the declaration of war and Germany's surrender were sunk while traveling in convoy. To build this record 3,552 escort trips were required and units of the Atlantic fleet and ships in convoy cruised more than 50 million miles.

Electricity Restricted

If the nation-wide strike of bituminous coal miners continues, it is estimated that our supplies of coal for the generation of electricity will be exhausted on May 21. This means that the normal electric power supply would cease on May 21 unless the production of coal is resumed by May 14, because even when the miners return to work, about 7 days will be required for coal to reach our generating stations.

The undersigned presented the facts of this critical situation to the Illinois Commerce Commission. Following a hearing, the Commission ordered immediate curtailments in the use of electricity. These restrictions are necessary to prolong electric service for public health and safety and protection of property.

Accordingly, the immediate curtailment of electricity has been ordered:

"a. for all such purposes as decorative, or ornamental and flood lighting, sign lighting, window and show case lighting, comfort air-conditioning, car heating, and interior lighting in excess of minimum requirements;

"b. for industrial use except for an aggregate of 24 hours during the period Monday to Friday inclusive . . . ;

"c. for commercial use except the four-hour period between 2 P. M. and 6 P. M. of Monday through Saturday inclusive . . . ;"

The Commission further orders the exemption from curtailment, so far as possible, of uses of electricity which are immediately essential to public health and safety and protection of property.

Your compliance is vital in this emergency. Everything possible is being done to protect and continue the supply of electricity. As soon as deliveries of coal are resumed, these restrictions will be relaxed and you will be immediately notified.

Early in the war, 122 days' supply of coal was maintained. Government fuel regulations caused a gradual reduction of this supply to approximately 50 days at the beginning of the coal strike April 1.
